AFRICANADIAN MEDIATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES Official Inauguration

September 28, 2002

On behalf of the Government of Ontario, I am pleased to extend greetings to everyone attending Africanadian Mediation and Community Services' (AMCS) official inauguration.

We are proud of our diverse heritage in Ontario and the strengths that each of these communities bring to our Province. Everyone attending tonight's inauguration can take pride in the enthusiasm being shown for AMCS' programs and activities. It is through the work of organizations such as AMCS that our communities can continue to grow as safe places to work, live and raise a family.

It takes initiative, vision, and hard work to make an event such as this happen and I want to recognize the organizers and volunteers for their success in this evening's festivities.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable inauguration.
